Chapter-3 : Procedure followed in decision-making process, including channels of supervision and accountability .

The major areas of decision-making relevant to the public and the norms followed in those areas are set out below Para 4.1. to 4.9. The channels of supervision and enforcing accountability generally follow the hierarchy specified in the organizational structure set out earlier in chapter-2.

4.1. Conditions and disqualifications for registration in the electoral roll, types of electors and Forms and Procedures followed:

4.1.1. Condition for registration- Every person who –

- (i) is not less than 18 years of age on the qualifying date (1st January of the year);
- (ii) is ordinarily resident in a constituency.

4.1.2. Disqualification for registration-

(1) A person shall be disqualified for registration in an electoral roll if he-

- (a) is not a citizen of India; or
- (b) is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent court;
- (c) is for the time being disqualified from voting under the provisions of any law relating to corrupt practices and other offences in connection with elections.

(2) The name of any person who becomes so disqualified after registration shall forthwith be struck off from the electoral roll in which it is included:

(Provided that the name of any person struck off from the electoral roll of a constituency by reason of a disqualification shall forthwith be re-instated in that roll if such disqualification is, during the period such roll is in force, removed under any law authorizing such removal).

4.1.3. Types of Electors:

There are three types of electors (General Electors, Service Electors and Overseas Electors).

(i) General Electors:

The general electors are the electors who are registered at the places where they are ordinarily resident and enrolled in the general electoral rolls. The general elector uses various application Forms like- Form-6 for registration/inclusion, Form-7 for objection/deletion, Form-8 for correction and Form-8A for transposition from one polling station to another polling station within the constituency. After registration of name in the electoral rolls, EPIC (Electors Photo Identity Card) is issued to the general electors. During the conduct of election, general electors go to the polling station to cast individual vote. The general electors who are on election duty are provided the facility of casting vote through Postal Ballot or Election Duty Certificate.

(ii) Service Electors:

The Service Electors are those persons having service qualifications like - Personnel of Indian Army, Navy, Air Force and CPMF (being a member of the Armed Forces of the Union; or being a member of a force to which provisions of the Army Act, 1950 (46 of 1950) have been made applicable whether with or without modifications); State Armed Police Forces posted outside the State and the Government of Indian Officials posted abroad.

They are registered as Service Electors in their native places though they are not ordinarily residing there because of the specific conditions of their services. They also have an option to get themselves enrolled as general elector at the place of their posting where they factually, at the point of time, are residing ordinarily with their family with a sufficient span of time. They Service Electors are enrolled in the last part of the electoral and maintained separately. The wife of Service Elector shall, if she is residing with her husband will also be entitled to be registered as Service Elector. For registration of Service Elector, following Forms are used-

- (a) Form-2, registration form for personnel of Indian Army, Navy, Air Force and CPMF;
- (b) Form-2A, registration form for personnel of State Armed Police Forces posted outside the State; and
- (c) Form-3, registration form for Government of India Officials posted abroad.

The Service Electors are allowed the facility to opt to cast vote either through Postal Ballot or Proxy during election. The Service Electors who opt to vote through proxy are categorized as Classified Service Voters (CSV). The CSV can appoint a person who is 18 years above and not disqualified from registration and residing in the constituency as a Proxy. The appointment of Proxy is made in Form 13F, and revocation of such appointment is made in Form 13G. During election the Proxy will cast vote for himself as well as Proxy vote on behalf of the CSV. A CSV who has appointed a Proxy shall not be issued a postal ballot paper. If a proxy is not appointed, then, they will be issued postal ballot.

(iii) Overseas Electors:

The NRIs (Non Resident Indians) who have not acquired the citizenship of any other country are eligible to be registered in the electoral roll of the constituency in their place of residence in India as mentioned in their passport is located. These electors are called an Overseas Electors. The NRIs can apply application for registration through Form-6A, for objection/deletion in Form-7, for correction in Form-8 and for transposition within same constituency in Form-8A. Separate list for Overseas Electors is prepared polling station-wise.

The Overseas Electors will not be issued Electors Photo Identity Card. During election the Overseas Electors will personally come to the native polling station where name is registered and will be identified through their original passport to enable cast vote.

- (a) any law providing for the prevention of hoarding of profiteering; or
- (b) any law relating to the adulteration of the food or drugs; or
- (c) any provisions of the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961; or

(3) A person convicted of any offence and sentenced to imprisonment for not less than 2 years (other than an offence referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) above), shall be disqualified from the date of such conviction and shall continue to be disqualified for a further period of 6 years since his release.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), a disqualification under either sub-section shall not, in the case of a person who on the date of the conviction is a member of Parliament or the Legislature of a State, take effect until 3 months have elapsed from the date or, if within that period an appeal or application for revision is brought in respect of the conviction or the sentence, until that appeal or application is disposed of by the court.

(B) Disqualification on ground of corrupt practices:

According to section 8A of the RP Act 1951, the case of every person found guilty of a corrupt practice by an order under section 99 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (made by the High Court at the conclusion of the trial of an Election Petition in case where a charge is made in an Election Petition of any corrupt practice having been committed at an Election) , shall be submitted, as soon as may be, after such order takes effect, by such authority as the Central Government may specify in this behalf, to the President for determination of the question as to whether such person shall be disqualified and if so, for what period. Provided that the period for which any person may be disqualified shall in no case exceed 6 years from the date on which the order made in relation to him under Section 99 takes effect.

(The Central Government has specified –

- (a) In relation to an Election to the House of the People or the Council of States, the Secretary General of the House of the People, and
- (b) In relation to an election to the Legislative Assembly of a State, the Secretary of the Legislative Assembly of a State, as the authority for the above purpose).

Before giving his decision on any question indicated above, the President/Governor shall obtain the opinion of the Election Commission and shall act according to such opinion.

(C) Disqualification for dismissal for corruption or disloyalty:

According to Section 9 of the RP Act, 1951, a person who having held an office under the Government of India or under the Government of any State has been dismissed for corruption or for disloyalty to the State shall be disqualified for a period of 5 years from the date of such dismissal. For this purpose, a certificate issued by the Election Commission to the effect that a person having held office under the Government of India or under the Government of any State has or has not been dismissed for corruption or for disloyalty to the State shall be conclusive proof of that fact. Provided that no certificate to the effect that a person has been dismissed for corruption or for disloyalty to the State shall be issued unless an opportunity of being heard has been given to the said person.

(D) Disqualification for Government contracts, etc.

According to Section 9A of the RP Act, 1951, a person shall be disqualified if, and so long as, there subsists a contract entered into by him in the course of his trade business with the appropriate Government for the supply of goods to, or for the execution of any works undertaken by, that Government.

(E) Disqualification for office under Government Company:

According to Section 10 of the RP Act, 1951, a person shall be disqualified if, and so long as, he is a managing agent, manager or secretary of any company or corporation (other than a co-operative society) in the capital of which the appropriate Government has not less than 25% share.

(F) Disqualification for failure to lodge account of election expenses (Sec. 10A of the RP Act, 1951)-

If the Election Commission is satisfied that a person-

(a) has failed to lodge an account of election expenses within the time and manner required by or under the Act; and

(b) has no good reason or justification for the failure, the Election Commission shall, by order published in the Official Gazette, declare him to be disqualified and any such person shall be disqualified for a period of 3 years from the date of the order.

(According to Section 77 –

- (1) Every Candidate at an election shall, either by himself or by his election agent, keep a separate and correct account of all expenditure in connection with the election incurred or authorized by him or by his election agent between the date on which he has been nominated and the date of declaration of the result thereof, both dates inclusive
- (2) The account shall contain particulars such as expenditure incurred on vehicles, meetings, publicity, etc.,
- (3) The total of the said expenditure shall not exceed ceiling limit of Rs.70 lakhs in the case of Parliament and Rs.20 lakhs in the case of Legislative Assembly.

According to Section 78 of the Act, every contesting candidate at an election shall, within 30 days from the date of election of the returned candidate or, if there are more than one returned candidate at the election and the dates of their election are different, the later of those two dates, lodge with the District Election Officer (Returning Officer in the case of a constituency in a Union Territory) an account of his election expenses which shall be a true account of the account kept by him or his election agent under Section 77).

(G) removal or reduction of period of disqualification (Sec. 11 of the RP Act, 1951)-

The Election Commission may, for reasons to be recorded, remove any disqualification except under Section 8A or reduce the period of such disqualification.

Chapter-17 : Such other information as may be prescribed:

(i) General information on conduct of elections:

The Constitution of India has vested in the Election Commission of India, the superintendence, direction and control of the entire process for conduct of elections to Parliament and Legislature of every State and to the offices of President and Vice-President of India.

Elections are conducted according to the constitutional provisions, supplemented by laws made by Parliament. The major laws are the Representation of the People Act, 1950, which mainly deals with the preparation and Revision of Electoral Rolls, the Representation of the People Act, 1951, which deals, in detail, with all aspects of conduct of elections and post-election disputes. The Supreme Court of India has held that where the enacted laws are silent or make insufficient provision to deal with a given situation in the conduct of elections, the Election Commission has the residuary powers under the Constitution to act in an appropriate manner.

For more information on election related activities, contents of Handbook published by Election Commission of India, etc. can be obtained from the website of Election Commission of India, i.e. www.eci.gov.in.

(ii) Obtaining Electoral Rolls:

- (a) The Electoral Rolls for all the Assembly Constituencies of the district are available in the Office of the Electoral Registration Officer. The electoral roll of a concerned polling station is also available with the concerned Booth Level Officer (BLO). The electoral rolls of all assembly constituencies are also available in the website <http://ceonagaland.nic.in>
- (b) Copies of the Electoral Rolls available with the Electoral Registration Officers may be obtained on payment of the fees as detailed below:
 - Copy of the computerized current Electoral Rolls Rs.2.00 per page.
 - Copies of extract of Electoral Rolls at Rs.5/- per record.
 - PS CD ROM containing the Electoral Rolls data Rs.100/-
 - If all the Assembly Constituencies under the jurisdiction of a District Election Officer do not fit in one CD, then that may be split into more than one CD with each CD sale price being fixed at Rs.100/-

(iii) EPIC:

The Electoral Registration Officer prepares the EPIC (Electors Photo Identity Card) of the registered elector and is issued to the elector free of cost. If the elector claims that the EPIC issued earlier is lost, a duplicate EPIC is issued on payment of Rs.25/- based on the declaration/application made by the concerned elector. However, no fee is charged for issue of first EPIC, in case of an error that can be attributed to the electoral machinery and EPIC lost due to natural calamities like cyclone, flood, earthquake etc.

- (iv) NVD (National Voters Day) is celebrated on 25th January every year to create electoral awareness as a measure to enhance participation of citizens in the democratic process to make universal adult franchise a complete reality. The newly registered electors in the latest revision are felicitated in a brief ceremony organized at the National Level, State Level, District Level, Assembly Constituency Level etc. 25th January is the Election Commission of India Foundation Day, and starting from the year 2011 the Commission decided to celebrate as National Voters Day.
